

Are You Excited About Sharing Bookjoy with All Children & Families?

Do You Want to Be Part of Making Children's Day, Book Day an April Tradition in Your Community, State & Nationally?

Become a Día Partner: Support Children's Day, Book Day!

Creating a nation of readers is essential in a democracy. Día, El día de los niños, El día de los libros / Children's Day, Book Day welcomes partners to our national community. Public and state libraries, school districts, early-childhood programs, universities and colleges, national organizations, publishers, and the media become partners by agreeing to:

1. Promote and/or plan annual April Children's Day, Book Day Celebrations
2. Promote reading and creative literacy activities to all children and families throughout the year

Current partners include First Book, Texas State Library, Texas Library Association, State Library of Iowa, Utah State Library, United States Board on Books for Young People (USBBY), Arte Público Press, HarperCollins, and Colorín Colorado (WETA).

Día was founded in 1996 by author Pat Mora. Early partners include REFORMA, the National Association to Promote Library & Information Services to Latinos and the Spanish Speaking and the Association of Library Service to Children (ALSC), a division of the American Library Association. Read more about Día on Pat's website, <http://www.patmora.com/whats-dia/>.

To be listed on the Partner page of Pat's website, please contact Bobbie Combs, webcontact@patmora.com.